

NHPS Team Clinched The First Position In The National Infocomm Club Awards (NICA) 2012!

The junior team took part in the National Infocomm Club Awards and achieved first position in the primary category.

The National Infocomm Club Awards (NICA) is an annual competition organized by Infocomm Development Authority (IDA) Singapore where pupils of the primary and secondary schools showcase their creative and innovative projects. The theme for this year's NICA is 'Learning with IT'. The team managed to put together their creative ideas and developed an educational game called 'Monster Chase'. Monster Chase encourages fun in the learning of English on prepositions for the lower primary pupils. The team members who have done the school proud are Clare Yeo (4F), Yik Wen Yuan (4B), Ong Chi Hanns (4B) Sim Enqing (4B) and Gavin Wong (6B).
