Faster access to digital technology for low-income families

SG:D EMPOWERING POSSIBILITIES

IM INFOCOMM MEDIA DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY

With stricter safe distancing and the introduction of home-based learning, low-income families can leverage on the following programmes to stay connected and support their e-learning needs.

The NEU PC Plus scheme is for

- Underprivileged Students
- Persons With Disabilities (PWDs)

Eligible beneficiaries will get

- Subsidised PC from $224.97 (inclusive of GST)
- Option to bundle 3 years of free fibre broadband subscription (where applicable)

NEU PC Plus (NPP) processing agency partners and vendors will SPEED UP

- Application
- Provisioning

FURTHER SUPPORT FOR
STUDENTS in this Covid-19 situation

NO CO-PAYMENT needed for MOE FAS students under iNSPIRE Fund with community service requirement waived iNSPIRE Fund offers assistance to students who are unable to afford the co-payment of their PC-bundles.

BROADBAND ONLY option available for MOE FAS students and existing NEU PC Plus beneficiaries without home internet

A SECOND PC OPTION for families with 3 or more school-going children

ACCELERATED PC delivery and broadband installation

(subject to stock availability and on-site conditions for broadband)

ADDITIONAL OPTION for mobile broadband at no cost

SUPPORT FOR HOUSEHOLDS
With Home Access 3.0

Eligible low-income households can apply to receive 2 years of subsidised internet access. Households without school-going children have the option to own a smartphone or tablet.

FOR THOSE WITH NEEDS
or wish to contribute

STUDENTS can contact theirs schools to apply for NPP, call 6684 8858 or apply online

HOUSEHOLDS can call 6377 3800 or go online to find out more about the Home Access Programme

For all other enquiries on obtaining support, please contact IMDA at info@imda.gov.sg or call 6377 3800.

Donors interested to make cash donations towards the digital needs of low-income households, please contact Community Chest at ncss_comchest@ncss.gov.sg or at hotline number 1800 210 2600.

SUPPORTING PARTNERS

AMP SINGAPORE | CDAC 华社自助理事会 | EA | SINDA Singapore Indian Development Association | Yayasan MENDAKI | acer | m1 | MyRepublic | NetLinkNBN the fibre of a smart nation

digitalaccess.gov.sg
#SGDIGITAL
/ IMDAsg